

2023 COMMUNITY BENEFIT SNAPSHOT

Providence St. Vincent Medical Center and communities

In 2023, Providence Oregon continued its tradition of compassion and dedication to our communities, with Providence St. Vincent Medical Center investing more than $100.9 million to improve community health. These targeted investments included $6.5 million in community health services and $15.3 million in free and low-cost care.

PROVIDENCE INVESTS IN OREGON'S HEALTH

HELPING LATINX FAMILIES ACCESS MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

In 2023, Providence supported Adelante Mujeres in developing a new mental health department to primarily help low-income Latinx families and children get access to low-cost mental health services. In addition to providing culturally specific mental health resources and therapy, Adelante Mujeres ran a mental health campaign to eliminate stigma and emphasize community connections through peer-based groups and occupational therapy.

SUPPORTING MENTAL WELLNESS IN THE LATINX COMMUNITY

Providence funding helped Raices de Bienestar expand its culturally specific mental health counseling program and community engagement efforts. As a community-based program working to improve the emotional health of Latinx people, Raices de Bienestar increased the number of people they could serve with services such as individual therapy. They also offered community activities that attracted nearly 2,000 individuals in 2023.

EXPANDING SUPPORT FOR DISABLED IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

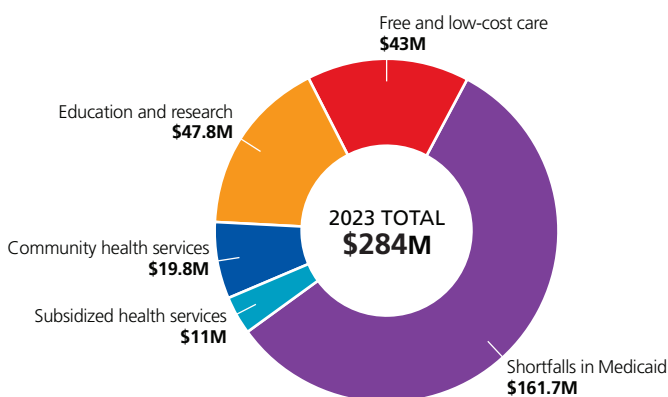

With funding from Providence, the Immigrant and Refugee Community Organization (IRCO) was able to expand its Disability Legal Services (DLS) program. The DLS program helped immigrants and refugees with disabilities obtain Social Security Income and Social Security Disability Income benefits. More than 90% of IRCO clients successfully obtained benefits, thus directly improving economic security for these individuals and families.
