There are some studio and one-bedroom apartments that are subsidized by King County Housing Authority. Rents in subsidized apartments are calculated at approximately 30% of household income.

^Households with income below this amount would require a subsidized apartment according to this income schedule. Subsidized apartments may be studios or one-bedroom apartments.

*If you have a Housing Choice Voucher the minimum income qualification does not apply; the maximum income limit does apply.

~If your household consists of four or more people, please contact us for the current maximum household income.
