ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Households applying for residency must meet the following criteria:

- The head of household, co-head, or spouse must be 62 years of age or older at the time of application. Applicants must meet this requirement in order to be placed on the wait list,
- The household must meet the Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) financial criteria for housing (60%, 40%, or 30% of area median income or less, depending on the apartment),
- The household must have verifiable income that meets the minimum amount required as posted in application documents, unless the household is applying for a subsidized apartment. There is no minimum income requirement for subsidized apartments,

- The household must disclose and provide verification of the Social Security Numbers of all household members. Refer to the SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIREMENTS section for additional information,
- All adult household members must sign an Authorization to Release Confidential Information prior to tenancy and annually thereafter,

- The household must be of an appropriate size for the available apartment. Refer to the OCCUPANCY STANDARDS section for additional information.

INCOME LIMITS

There are several different maximum income levels at Providence John Gabriel House, based on the Area Median Income (AMI) as determined each year by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). Income Limits are published by HUD at <http://www.huduser.org/portal/index.html> and are subject to change without notice. Applicants can call the property manager at the number above to inquire about current income limits.

Providence John Gabriel House consists of the following mix of apartments based on Income Limits:

Income Limits for Studio Apartments	Income Limits for 1-bedroom Apartments	Income Limits for 2-bedroom Apartments
8 apartments – 30% AMI	29 apartments – 30% AMI	2 apartments – 40% AMI
4 apartments – 40% AMI	13 apartments – 40% AMI	2 apartments – 60% AMI
	16 apartments – 60% AMI

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Management reserves the right to limit the number of individuals residing within a single apartment. Consideration is given to overcrowding and underutilization factors as well as compliance with federal, state, and local laws. Generally, the acceptable number of persons per apartment, depending on household composition, will be:

Studio Apartments:	1-2 people
1-Bedroom Apartments:	1-2 people
2-Bedroom Apartments:	2-5 people (2 people minimum)

Due to restrictions in the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit program, households may not add a new member during the first year of residency. Any household wishing to add a member after the first year of residency must have the proposed new member of the household complete all application materials and must receive management approval prior to adding the member to the household or moving into the apartment.

SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are not required to have or disclose their Social Security Number (SSN) in order to be placed on the wait list. However, each member of the applicant household must disclose and provide verification of their Social Security Number (SSN) before the household may be housed. Households may retain their place on the wait list if all household members required to disclose an SSN cannot do so at the time an apartment is offered. In this case, the household will have 90 calendar days to disclose and provide verification of all SSNs. If all SSNs are disclosed and verified within 90 days, the household will be offered the next available unit. If all SSNs are not disclosed and verified within 90 calendar days of the date an apartment is offered, the application will be cancelled, and the household will be removed from the wait list.

The documentation required to verify the SSN is a valid Social Security Number card issued by the Social Security Administration, an original document issued by a federal or state government agency with contains the name and SSN of the individual along with identifying information of the individual, or any of the following: Work Visa, Alien Registration Receipt Card, Temporary Resident Card, IRS Individual Taxpayer ID Number, or Employment Authorization Card.

SUBSIDIZED APARTMENTS

Providence John Gabriel House has 43 apartments that are subsidized by King County Housing Authority (KCHA). The amount of rent a household pays in a subsidized apartment is based on the household's income and is calculated by KCHA. The remainder of the rent is paid by the housing authority.

To qualify for a subsidized apartment, applicants must meet the following criteria in addition to the criteria listed in the ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA section above:

- Household income must be at or below 30% or 40% AMI, depending on the apartment
- Households must complete required KCHA paperwork be approved by KCHA for a subsidy

PREFERENCES FOR SUBSIDIZED APARTMENTS

Completed applications for subsidized apartments are placed on the subsidy wait list in the order they are received unless the applicant qualifies for an admission preference.

Admission preferences are only available for eight (8) designated apartments subsidized by KCHA project-based subsidies. Providence John Gabriel House uses the following criteria to determine priority placement on the wait list for those eight (8) designated apartments. Applicants with verified preferences are placed on the wait list for the eight designated apartments ahead of applicants without verified preferences. Preferences must be verified prior to receiving the preference and must be valid at the time of move-in.

An applicant may submit an application, then provide verification of a preference later. Once the verification is received, the preference will be added to the application.

First preference for the eight designated apartments is offered to households that are referred by Providence Elderplace/PACE (Program of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly). A signed referral form from Providence Elderplace/PACE must be received by management to qualify for the preference.

Second preference is offered to households enrolled in Consumer First Choice (CFC, formerly COPES), or who are receiving homecare/caregiver services covered by DSHS. A signed verification form or other proof of enrollment must be received by management to qualify for the preference.

If there are no applicants who meet any of these preferences at the time a unit becomes available, the apartment will be offered to the next applicant on the subsidy wait list.

WAIT LIST ORDER AND MAINTENANCE

The wait list is open at all times unless it exceeds a manageable number that would require management, at its discretion, to close the wait list.

Applicants must notify management if any of the following changes occur:

Address or phone number	Income	Qualifications for a preference
Household composition	Criminal History

Applications will be removed from the wait list if:

- The household no longer meets the eligibility requirements for the property or the project
- The household fails to respond to a written notice requesting response in the timeframe indicated in the notice
- The household is offered and rejects two units on the property. See RIGHT OF REFUSAL section for further details
- Mail sent to the address listed on the application is returned as undeliverable
- Changes in household size put the applicant household outside of the minimum or maximum occupancy standards

Once each year, applicants who have been on the wait list for longer than 6 months will receive a letter asking the household to confirm its continued interest in remaining on the wait list for the property. Applicants must respond to the letter in the timeframe indicated in order to maintain their position on the wait list. Applicants who do not respond in the timeframe indicated, or whose letter is returned as undeliverable, may be removed from the wait list.

ELIGIBILITY OF STUDENTS

Households comprised of full-time students, as defined by LIHTC rules, are not eligible for housing at Providence John Gabriel House, with the following exceptions:

1. At least one individual is receiving assistance under Title IV of the Social Security Act (i.e. TANF);

2. At least one individual is enrolled in a job training program receiving assistance under the Workforce Investment Act or under other similar federal, state, or local laws;
 3. The household consists of a single parent and his/her dependents, where neither the single parent nor their children are dependents of another individual (other than a parent of such children);
 4. The household consists of persons who are married and eligible to file a joint tax return;
 5. At least one individual was previously under the care of a state foster care program.
- Documentation will be required to verify exceptions to an all-student household.

PROCEDURES FOR ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS AND SELECTING FROM THE WAIT LIST

The application process has two phases. The first phase requires completion of the Application For Housing Wait List and all required attachments. The second phase requires completion of the Application For Housing and all required attachments and forms. The second phase is initiated when the applicant is nearing the top of the wait list.

Phase One

The Application For Housing Wait List package includes the following forms which must be completed and submitted to the management office to be considered for placement on the wait list. Incomplete, inaccurate, or illegible forms will be returned to the applicant.

- Application for Housing Wait List – this form must be completed and signed by all adult household members.
- Household Demographics – Completion of the race and ethnic data on the form is optional, but each household member must sign this form, even if they choose to leave the data blank.
- Tenant Selection Plan – Applicants should review this Tenant Selection Plan and retain it for their records. It does not need to be signed or returned to the office.

Applicants indicating on the application form that they require an apartment which is accessible to persons with a mobility, hearing, or visual disability, or requesting any other reasonable accommodation for a disability, will be contacted for additional information, and will be asked to sign verification documents per the Reasonable Accommodation Policy. This information will be added to the application in order to offer the applicant an apartment that meets their needs.

If the information provided on the Application for Housing Wait List form indicates that the applicant meets the eligibility criteria, then the first phase of the application is complete and the applicant will be placed on the wait list in chronological order according to the date and time the management office received the completed application materials, unless the applicant household is applying for a subsidized apartment and qualifies for a preference. Applicants will be notified by mail that they have been added to the wait list.

Phase Two

When the applicant is nearing the top of the wait list, an Application for Housing will be mailed to the applicant and a certification interview will be scheduled with the household. During the interview, the household will complete all remaining application and certification forms, including forms to verify income, assets and medical expenses, landlord reference forms, personal or professional references, and release of information forms. Photo ID and verification of Social Security Number must be provided and will be used to conduct a background check including criminal, eviction, and credit history. Additional forms include:

- Student Certification – All applicants must complete this form regardless of student status
- Disability Certification – All applicants must complete this form regardless of disability status. Disability status will be verified separately.

UNIT OFFER

Applicants will be contacted by phone and in writing when a unit is available. Applicants must respond within 7 days to either accept or reject the unit. Refer to the RIGHT OF REFUSAL section for further information.

It is important that applicants inform the office of any changes to mailing address or phone number so management can reach the applicant when their application nears the top of the wait list. Failure to respond to the unit offer may result in the application being cancelled.

TENANT SCREENING CRITERIA

Application Criteria

- Applicants must meet all criteria listed in the ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS section of this document.
- Applicants must provide all required documentation and information, sign all required documents, and update management with any changes to contact information within requested timelines.
- Applicants must not submit false or incomplete information in the application process.

Rental and Credit History Criteria

- Applicants must demonstrate history of paying rent in full and on time. If the applicant(s) has no rental history, a credit check must show no excessive unpaid amounts for utilities and/or other bills.
- References from landlords from the past three years must be clear of any disinclination to rent to applicants again due to failure to pay rent or other charges, damage to the premises, or disturbances to the peaceful enjoyment of the premises.
- Applicants must have no history of unlawful detainers or eviction proceedings for non-payment or other lease violations against any household member within the three years prior to being offered an apartment. In the event that eviction proceedings were due to lease violations caused by a previous household member who will not be part of the applicant household, the applicant household must provide an explanation of the circumstances along with supporting documentation for review by management.

Public Records Screening

Public records screening criteria are designed to help ensure the safety and protection of people and property.

- Applicants and any household members with pending criminal charges for drug violations or violent crimes will not be considered for housing until charges have been formally dismissed. If an application reaches the top of the waitlist, and the applicant or any household member has pending criminal charges, the applicant may retain their position until charges are dismissed, or for 120 days, whichever is shorter. If charges have not been dismissed after 120 days, the applicant may request an extension for up to an additional 30 days, and must provide documentation from a legal aide or court system that shows the case is proceeding.
- An application may be denied if applicant or any household member demonstrates abusive or violent behavior that may pose a direct threat to the health, safety, or welfare of residents, the public, or staff.

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development prohibits the following persons from receiving federally subsidized housing:

- Any household containing a member(s) who was evicted in the last three years from federally assisted housing for drug-related criminal activity. Two exceptions may be considered: 1) The evicted household member has successfully completed an approved, supervised drug rehabilitation program; or 2) The circumstances leading to the eviction no longer exist (e.g. the household member no longer resides with the applicant household).
- A household in which any member is currently engaged in illegal use of drugs or federally controlled substances or for which there is reasonable cause to believe that a household member's illegal use or pattern of use of illegal drugs or federally controlled substances may interfere with the health, safety, and right to peaceful enjoyment of the property by residents, staff or guests (CFR 5.854)
- Any applicant or household member who is subject to lifetime registration requirements under any State sex offender registration program; or (CFR 5.856)
- Any household member if there is reasonable cause to believe that a member's behavior, from abuse or pattern of abuse of alcohol, may interfere with the health, safety, and right to peaceful enjoyment by other residents. (CFR 5.857)

Further screening criteria include:

- Applicants with any drug-related misdemeanor convictions for manufacture, distribution, or possession with intent to distribute within the past two years must complete the individual assessment process before being considered for housing.
- The following requires two years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction:
 - A single misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor conviction for assault (without a weapon), disturbing the peace, property crimes, or other convictions, except traffic violations.
- The following requires five years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction:
 - A single drug-related felony conviction,
 - A history of multiple misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor convictions for assault (without a weapon), disturbing the peace, property crimes, or other convictions, except traffic violations.
 - A single incident of felony assault
 - Conviction of sexual assault, domestic violence or abuse, elder abuse, or child abuse
- The following requires seven years free of criminal convictions immediately following the most recent conviction, and also requires an Individual Assessment by management.
 - Any violent felony not previously addressed
 - A history of multiple felony assaults and/or violent crimes
 - Any conviction for violence involving a weapon of any kind
 - Conviction of a hate crime
- Applicants and all household members with a criminal record of any offense(s) not listed above may request an individual assessment process. Please request information about this process from the management office.

VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

An applicant's or a tenant's status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is not a basis for denial of rental assistance or for denial of admission if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.

REJECTION OF INELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

Applicants who do not meet the screening criteria will be notified in writing why they will not be accepted as tenants. They will be given an opportunity to meet with the Housing Director to discuss any questions they have regarding the screening criteria or to appeal the decision by presenting additional information relevant to the screening process.

If a unit was offered to the applicant prior to the denial of application, the unit will be offered to the next person on the wait list. However, if the applicant presents additional information that mitigates the reason for rejection, the household may be re-instated on the wait list at the position they held when the rejection was made.

RIGHT OF REFUSAL

An applicant may turn down the offer of a unit for which they are eligible one time and retain their position on the wait list. If an applicant turns down a unit for which they are eligible a second time, the application will be cancelled and the applicant will be removed from the wait list. The applicant may reapply.

There is one exception to this policy. An applicant who requires a unit designed for mobility access, or a unit with auditory/visual accessibility features may be offered apartments without those features, and may turn down those apartments without losing their place on the wait list. When offered an accessible unit that meets the applicant's stated requirements, the applicant may turn down the offer of the first accessible unit and retain their position on the wait list, but if they turn down a second accessible unit, the application will be cancelled and the applicant will be removed from the wait list. The applicant may reapply.

UNIT TRANSFER POLICY

Transfers between apartments with the same number of bedrooms and of the same subsidy status are facilitated only as a Reasonable Accommodation based upon the verified need for specific features in the unit.

Transfers from a non-subsidized apartment to one with a subsidy are facilitated if the household is paying more than 50% of their income toward rent and they meet the criteria listed in the SUBSIDIZED APARTMENTS section of this document.

All households requesting a transfer must meet all criteria for the apartment they are transferring into.

Households requesting a transfer based on a Reasonable Accommodation that also qualify for a subsidized unit take priority over transfers based only on a request for a rent subsidy.

Transfers based on a Reasonable Accommodation from a non-subsidized unit to another non-subsidized unit take priority over new applications.

Approved internal transfers take priority over new applications. Transfers to or between subsidized apartments also require King County Housing Authority approval.

For accessible apartments, when there is neither a qualified applicant nor a current tenant with disabilities requiring the accessibility features of the apartment, management may offer the apartment to another household, providing that the household enter into an agreement that they will transfer to a non-accessible apartment within the same project if another household requires the features of the accessible apartment.

Transfers from a 2-bedroom to a 1-bedroom apartment are required if the household no longer meets the minimum of two (2) household members required for a 2-bedroom apartment, and if the household meets eligibility and qualification requirements for the 1-bedroom per the LIHTC program.

Requests to transfer from a 1-bedroom to a 2-bedroom apartment will be considered after the first full year of residency, and only if household composition changes (increases). The household must be in good standing with no late/past-due rent notices or lease violation notices within the past 12 months. The household must meet eligibility and qualification requirements for the new apartment, including requirements of the LIHTC program.

Requests to transfer from a studio to a 1-bedroom apartment will be considered after the first full year of residency and do not require a change of household composition. The household must submit a request to transfer and will be placed on the applicant waitlist in the order in which they applied. Current residents will not receive priority for the next available unit. The household must meet eligibility and qualification requirements for the new apartment, including requirements of the LIHTC program.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

Applicants with disabilities retain the right to request reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services including those pertaining to the application process, and retain the right to request reasonable modifications to their apartment or common areas if such accommodations or modifications are necessary to afford the applicant equal opportunity to enjoy the premises. Requests for reasonable accommodation or modification should be made to management. The applicant will be asked to provide information to help verify disability and/or the need for the requested accommodation or modification. A written response will be sent to the applicant within 14 days of the request.

LIVE-IN AIDES/ATTENDANTS

Live-In Aides/Attendants must complete a Live-In Aide Application and all required forms and attachments and be approved by management prior to occupancy. Live-In Aides/Attendants must pass all screening criteria except the criterion to pay rent on time, as they are not responsible for rental payments. Live-In Aides/Attendants will be required to provide identification and proof of SSN in order to conduct the screening.

Live-In Aides/Attendants in project-based section 8 units must also be approved by King County Housing Authority.

MARKETING

The property is marketed via newspaper ads, the Providence website, and flyers placed in the surrounding community and sent to community organizations in accordance with the approved HUD Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. Advertising targets individuals whose annual income is at the extremely low-income level for the area. Management maintains contact with community groups and organizations that work with persons who are least likely to apply.
